

Maryland Public High School Tuition Discount Request

EARLY COLLEGE ACCESS PROGRAM

- Maryland public school students are eligible to take classes for free with an approved ECAP form from their school. If courses are not approved by your school, complete this form to request a 25% discount on tuition for credit courses.
- To be eligible for a 25% discount on credit tuition this request form must be submitted to AACC each semester. The student completes this request form and signs the Student Statement and the parent or guardian signs the Parent/Guardian Statement.
- The student submits this request form to AACC’s Cashier’s Office at cashiersoffice@aacc.edu (PDF preferred), registers online through MyAACC, and must make required payment to avoid being deregistered from the AACC course(s) for non-payment. Please call 410-777-2236 with any questions.
- Maryland public school students are responsible for: complying with AACC’s standard payment terms and conditions, the remaining tuition, all applicable fees, and for purchasing all required textbooks and other course materials for all courses not approved by their high school.
